

Don't Sit This One Out!

Exodus 18:19-26; 2 Chronicles 7:12-22; Proverbs 14:34;
Matthew 5:13-16; Romans 13:1-7; 1 Timothy 2:2-4; 1 Peter 2:13-17

November 1, 2020

“All it takes for evil to triumph is for good men to do _____!”
Should Christians vote, or should they just _____ and hope God will put the best people in office? I am only _____ vote, so it really won't make a difference whether or not I vote. What is the believer's _____ when it comes to elections?

A. Christians have been called to _____ living in a difficult world in light of the salvation we enjoy in Jesus Christ.

1. We have been called out to be a holy people in order to _____ God's glory.
2. We are to demonstrate willing _____ to authority
rather than _____ rebellion.
3. Our relationship is both horizontal and _____
(_____ or sacred).

B. In the United States, we live in a constitutional, _____ republic.

1. The _____ is “king”, not the president.
2. The constitution makes federal law supreme within its _____.
3. The constitution limits the _____ of federal law.

C. We are to give “_____”.

1. To _____ men by treating them with respect because they are made in the _____ of God
2. To the “king” (_____)
 - a. By understanding, supporting, and _____ it
 - b. By understanding and supporting our _____ constitutions
 - c. By _____ for our system of government and its leaders
 - d. By _____ participating in the political process
 - e. By remembering our _____ citizenship

D. Why Christians should _____

1. It is a _____ and calling given to us by God.
2. It helps uphold Biblical _____ in our society.
3. It promotes a peaceable and _____ spirit for life.
4. It helps protect our nation from _____.
5. It helps our _____ recognize their accountability to God.