

Immanuel-King, The Branch of Jesse

Isaiah 11:1-16

January 17, 2021

There is no reason to fear and become _____ due to the outward circumstances which spark _____ on the inside. God _____ the promises He makes, although we may not see them fulfilled in the way we thought or in the _____ frame we expected.

A. The Immanuel-King's _____ (vs. 1)

1. A rod (_____) foretold from David's family line
 - a. A _____ twig (Branch) from the stump
 - b. A sign of vibrant _____

2. Contrasted to the _____ boughs and lofty trees of 10:33-34.
 - a. Representing the Assyrian invader – the _____ of God
 - b. The Branch is _____. (Matthew 2:23)
 - (1). Matthew – The Branch is the _____ (Jer. 23:5).
Jesus is _____ descendent.
 - (2). Mark – My _____ the Branch (Zech. 3:8)
 - (3). Luke – The _____ whose name is the Branch (Zech. 6:12)
 - (4). John – The Branch of _____ (Isa. 4:2)

B. The Immanuel-King's _____ (vs. 2)

1. Spirit of wisdom and _____
 - a. _____ gifts
 - b. Produces _____ and discrimination

2. Spirit of counsel and _____ (strength)
 - a. Enables Him to rule _____
 - b. Exercises _____ equity, justice, and decision making

3. Spirit of _____
 - a. Of the _____
 - b. Knows His _____ and purposes

4. Spirit of _____ of the LORD
 - a. Deep _____ and reverence for the Father
 - b. Completely _____ to the Father's will

C. The Immanuel-King's _____

1. Perfect _____
 - a. He will be _____ and righteous, dealing in _____.
 - b. He will judge the heart and not just the _____.
 - c. He will defend the _____.
 - d. He will _____ a peaceful kingdom.

2. All nations will _____ to Him.
 - a. The Jews will be _____ and the land _____ restored to them.
 - b. The Gentiles will _____ come to the Lord.

3. He will give His people _____ and defeat the wicked.