

Judgment is Coming

Isaiah 22:1 – 23:18

February 21, 2021

God's righteousness demands _____ from His chosen people, as well as from all nations. Christians should be whole-heartedly _____ to the LORD and not be succumbed to a worldly philosophy that says they have a _____ pass to sin because they have been forgiven. Believers in Jesus Christ have a responsibility to _____ in a manner that glorifies God and points others to salvation through Christ.

A. Prophecy Concerning _____ (22:1-25)

1. Lamentation over her _____ security (vv. 1-4)
 - a. _____ people
 - (1). Giving themselves to _____
 - (2). _____ alleviation of their danger
 - (3). Should have repented, _____ themselves, and thanked God for _____
 - b. Leaders would _____ in masse and be captured
 - (1). So paralyzed with _____ they were defenseless
 - (2). _____ of cowardiceness
2. The coming day of _____
 - a. The revelation – Jerusalem would be _____ by a powerful and cruel enemy
 - b. The _____ – Judah had turned against God, so God will turn against Judah
 - c. The repentance needed was _____.

3. The _____ of Shebna, principal officer of the court
 - a. His _____
 - (1). He was _____ and pompous.
 - (2). He _____ the office.
 - b. His _____ – Eliakim, godly son of Hilkiyah, a picture of Christ (vv. 22-24):
 - (1). On his _____ (sustaining the divine government)
 - (2). _____ of the house of David – to unlock the treasures of:
 - (a). Redemptive _____
 - (b). Righteous _____

B. Prophecy Concerning _____ (23:1-18)

1. The _____ by the Lord (vv. 1-14)
 - a. The _____
 - (1). The _____ – Isaiah tells the merchants to weep over the destruction of Tyre's harbors.
 - (2). The _____ – God Himself
 - (a). The Babyonian armies will _____ what the Assyrians can't do.
 - (b). Totally _____ its palaces to a heap of ruins
 - b. The _____
 - (1). _____ years
 - (2). After this period, God will _____ it, but Tyre would _____ to its sinful ways.
2. The _____ of Tyre to the LORD
 - a. The people will eventually turn in _____ to the LORD.
 - b. They will give a portion of their _____ to help support the priests of God.