

God is No Respector of Persons

Isaiah 15:1 – 18:7

February 7, 2021

God not only holds all individuals _____ to His righteousness; He also evaluates all nations by the _____ principles. The verse, “Blessed is the _____ whose God is the LORD...” (Psalm 33:12), is not for Israel _____. A nation that is _____ by righteousness, justice, and grace will receive God’s _____. That nation that is not governed in that manner will experience God’s _____.

A. Prophecies Against _____ (15:1-16:14)

1. The _____ of Moab
 - a. Two important cities will be destroyed in _____ night.
 - b. _____ will hunt down the survivors.
 - c. Its women will be _____ like homeless birds.
 - d. Within three years, very few people will be left _____.
2. The _____ of Moab
 - a. Pagan _____ was rampant.
 - b. They were filled with arrogance, _____, and rudeness.
3. The _____ over Moab
 - a. The tears of the _____ reflect great grief.
 - (1). They will shave their heads and _____ off their beards.
 - (2). They will put on _____.
 - (3). Their _____ will be heard throughout the land.
 - (4). They will pray to their idols for help, but to no _____.
 - b. The tears of the _____ show the horror of the judgment.

B. Prophecies Against _____ and the Northern Kingdom (17:1-14)

1. The _____ of the judgment
 - a. Their _____ of God
 - b. Their _____ idolatry
2. The _____ offered
 - a. Both nations were invited to accept _____.
 - b. Only one will _____ to God and be delivered.

C. Prophecies Against _____ (18:1-7)

1. It was a _____ nation.
 - a. It was very _____ to destroy other nations.
 - b. It was _____ far and wide.
2. It would be a _____ nation.
 - a. It was planning to _____ Jerusalem.
 - b. God will cut down its army like a man _____ a vineyard.
3. It will be a _____ nation.
 - a. During the _____
 - b. The people will bring their _____ to the Lord in Jerusalem.