

God Has a Message for Every Nation

Isaiah 13:1-14:32

January 31, 2021

The Lord God Almighty, Jehovah, is not just the _____ God for Israel, but He has a _____ for every nation. The _____ He has for the people of every country compels Him to give them _____ of His coming judgment on sin, and invites them to _____ in Him for salvation and deliverance, for _____ and recovery.

A. God's _____ of His Foes (13:1-22; 14:12-32)

1. Babylon

a. Destruction _____ (13:1-22)

(1). The _____ of the destruction

(a). The people will be _____ with fear.

(b). The land will be _____.

(c). The _____ will be destroyed.

(d). The heavens will be _____.

(e). _____ will be as scarce as gold.

(f). Babylon's armies will _____ to their own lands like hunted deer.

(g). The children will be killed and the wives _____.

(2). The _____ of the destruction; Medes and Persians

b. The destruction _____ (14:12-27)

(1). The _____: the fall of Satan

(a). Lucifer ("daystar, _____ one")

(b.) _____ and cruelty

(2). The _____:

(a). Babylon's _____ will be destroyed.

(b). Its _____ will be killed.

(c). It's _____ will be desolated and deserted.

2. Assyria and Philistia (14:24-32)

a. Even God's _____ will come to pass.

b. God's _____ will not be thwarted.

c. God's warnings should be _____.

(1). Do not _____ over the death of their oppressor (Shalmaneser V), for his son will be an even _____ scourge.

(2). They will soon be _____ as their nation is gone.

B. God's _____ for His Friends (14:1-11)

1. Salvation _____ (vv. 1-3)

a. God promises to _____.

b. God promises to _____.

c. God promises to _____ His people in their land forever.

d. God will give _____ from sorrow, fear, and bondage.

2. Sarcasm _____ (vv. 4-11)

a. The enemies will be _____.

b. God always writes the _____ chapter.