

Righteousness and Peace

Isaiah 26:1 – 27:13

March 7, 2021

After prophesying concerning _____ different nations in the first 23 chapters, Isaiah enlarged his prophecy and described a _____ that would fall on the whole world beginning in chapter 24. It will be a _____ judgment that will end with the destruction of God's enemies and the restoration of God's people Israel in their _____ land. In chapters 24 and 25 we saw the coming tribulation and triumph; the fact that the Lord will judge His enemies and will preserve His people. Now we see the Lord will _____ the nation.

A. The _____ City (26:1-6)

1. The New Jerusalem will be _____.
2. It will be a _____ city.
 - a. Only those who have trusted Jesus Christ can _____.
 - b. Because they believe, they have _____ (Romans 5:1). "Shalom" means more than cessation of _____. It includes blessings such as wholeness, _____, quietness of soul, preservation, and _____.

B. The _____ Path (26: 7-11)

1. The Jews have traveled a _____ road, but now a smooth one.
2. They will:
 - a. Discern and _____ in the will of God
 - b. Yearn for the Lord and worship Him even in the _____.
3. God wants the world to learn and _____ righteousness.
 - a. He brings judgments, but they will not _____.
 - b. He gives _____, but they still continue to do evil.
4. The reviving and restoring of Israel should help _____ a lost world that God is not dead & that He _____ His promises!

C. The Woman in _____ (26:12-18)

1. Because of their _____, the Jews had been subjected to many Gentile tyrants. Their travail produced _____, when God wanted them to bring to the world His _____.

2. What _____ them?
 - a. They turned from _____ worship of the true God.
 - b. They gave their _____ to idols.

D. The Life-giving _____ (26:19-21)

1. Like dew brings _____ life to the soil and vegetation, God will raise the _____ out of the earth.
2. _____ over death (1 Cor. 15:35-49)

E. The Conquered _____ (27:1)

1. To _____ leviathan was a great achievement (Psm. 74:14)
2. God's people are no longer in _____ to Satan.

F. The _____ Vineyard (27:2-11)

1. The nation will no longer produce _____ grapes.
 - a. It will be fruitful and _____.
 - b. _____ the nations of the earth will be blessed (Gen 12:1-3).
2. Three _____ in the Bible
 - a. The _____ of Israel (Isa. 5 and 27)
 - b. Christ and His _____ (John 15)
 - c. Godless Gentile _____ (vine of the earth, Rev. 14:18)

G. The Holy and Happy _____ (27:12-13)

1. The camp of Israel was directed by the blowing of _____.
2. God will again _____ His people from their bondage to the Gentile nations.
3. God's people today are also waiting for the sound of the trumpet. (1 Cor. 15:50-58; 1 Thess. 4:13-18)