

Conversation Between God, His Son, and Israel

Isaiah 49:1 – 50:11

June 13, 2021

Have you ever had a conversation with _____? How did it go? Have you had a conversation with someone who _____ they are right, but you know by the _____ they are wrong? What about those who can only see the _____, but cannot see the _____-term consequences? The _____ of the Servant of the Lord (the Messiah) and His _____ is pictured in this passage of Isaiah.

A. The Father and Immanuel (49:1-13; 50:4-9)

1. The words of Christ to _____ (49:1-2; 50:4-9)
 - a. “God commissioned me before my _____ birth.”
 - b. “I am a mighty _____ in His hands.”
 - c. “He gives me perfect _____, that I might comfort those in need.”
 - d. “I obediently follow Him, even when I _____ for it.”
 - e. “God will totally _____ me.”
2. The words of the Father to _____. (49:3, 5-13)
 - a. “I will _____ my glory through you.”
 - b. “You will _____ and restore Israel.”
 - c. “You will be a _____ to the Gentiles.”
 - d. “After suffering _____, you will be honored by all nations.”
 - e. “You will _____ in the Millennium”.
3. The words of Christ to the _____. (49:4)
 - a. “My labor and loyalty to you seem in _____, but I will leave everything in your hands.”
 - b. “I gladly yield my entire life and _____ to you!”

B. The Father and Israel (49:13-26; 50:1-3, 10-11)

1. The _____ of Israel
 - a. “The LORD has _____ me.”
 - b. “The LORD has _____ me.”
2. The _____ by God
 - a. He has _____ forgotten them.
 - b. In _____, Israel has forsaken and forgotten Him.
3. The _____ from God
 - a. The _____ of God’s love – It is stronger than that of a nursing mother for her _____.
 - b. The _____ of God’s love – He has engraved His people on the _____ of His hands.
 - c. The _____ of God’s love
 - (1). Their _____ will be destroyed.
 - (2). The Israelites will be regathered to _____.
The land will be _____ with the people who return.
 - (3). They will be _____ by all nations.
 - (4). All of their _____ will be provided.
4. The _____
 - a. Fear and _____ God!
 - b. Look to Him and _____ to yourselves.

