

Two Sons, and Wicked Husbandmen

Matthew 21:28-46

October 9, 2022

God designed us to _____. Some people perish for _____ thinking, and some perish for _____ thinking. Jesus asked the chief priests and elders, “What do you think?” In response to their question of _____, Jesus told them parables as a _____ before their eyes to convince them of their sins. He condemns them for their _____, and then condemns them for their _____.

A. The Two Sons (vv. 28-32)

1. What the Father _____
 - a. The _____ of the Father’s claim – ownership and relationship
 - b. The desire of the Father’s heart – _____ work
 - c. The _____ of the Father’s request – today
2. What the sons _____
 - a. The first – a decided _____ (selfish indifference and open _____)
 - b. The second – _____ reverence and smooth talk
3. What the sons did
 - a. The first _____ and obeyed.
 - b. The second _____, and failed to deliver.

B. The Wicked Husbandmen

1. The _____ did much labor
 - a. Planted, _____, digged, and _____
 - b. God did the same with _____.
 - c. Jesus _____ Himself in every respect for us.

2. Israel enjoyed great _____.
 - a. The vineyard was _____ out to them.
 - b. They had squandered them by _____.
3. Fruit was _____.
 - a. Labor is designed to _____ something.
 - b. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20
4. _____ was demonstrated
 - a. No sign of _____ for the privileges given
 - b. The grace of God had been _____.
5. _____ was shown.
 - a. Great patience with the _____ and cruelty
 - b. Great _____ – sending His own Son
6. Rebellion more _____.
 - a. Kill Him and _____ the inheritance
 - b. “We have no king but Caesar!”
7. Destruction _____.
 - a. Neglecting grace brings _____ doom.
 - b. The householder asked for the fruits _____ he came.
 - c. A dreadful awakening when _____ comes.