

What's In The Name?

Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 1:26-38

December 11, 2022

There are many instances in Scripture where the _____ meaning of a name given carries great significance. For instance; Isaac (_____), Moses (drawn from the _____), and Ichabod (the _____ is departed). Sometimes God even changed a name to _____ significance; Abram to Abraham (father of _____, to father of a multitude), and Jacob to Israel (supplanter, to _____ with God).

A. A Glimpse at the Genealogy Lists

1. God's _____ to His promise to Abraham
2. The eternal God does not necessarily work in a _____.
3. All mankind is inter-_____.
4. The universality of _____
5. The all-inclusiveness of Christ's _____
6. The marvelous way in which God overrules _____ in order to give due prominence to Christ Jesus

B. Jesus

1. It describes _____ He is.
2. It explains _____ He will do.
3. It shows who He will _____.
4. It tells us from _____ we will be saved.

a. He came to save by putting away _____. John 1:29

b. He came to save by His own _____. Colossians 1:14

c. He came to save from _____ iniquity. Titus 2:14

d. He came to save because no _____ else can. Acts 4:12

C. Emmanuel

1. God with us in the _____ (John 1:14; 1 Timothy 3:16)
2. God with us as a _____ (Acts 20:28; 1 Peter 1:18-19)
3. God with us to _____ (2 Corinthians 5:19)
4. God with us in all _____ (John 1: 16-17; Colossians 2:9)
5. God with us as an _____ (Philippians 2:5-6)
6. God with us as a _____ (2 Corinthians 6:16)
7. God with us _____ (Matthew 28:20; Hebrews 13:5-6)