

Forgetting – Reaching – Pressing

Philippians 3:1-21

January 1, 2023

When you want to throw off the burdens of the _____ and they continue to hang around, how can you actually move _____ with your life? You may think, “I have tried many times before and failed, so am I just a _____, or is it possible to actually be a _____ in what really matters?”

A. Understand the _____. (Forgetting, or failing to recall)

1. What _____ happened?
 - a. Do a full _____.
 - b. It is never easy to _____ with disappointment, or failure.
 - c. Don't just _____ it off as not being your problem.
2. Be willing to be _____.
 - a. Trust that God can use what happened for _____ good and His _____. Romans 8:28
 - b. We must be _____ to God's working in our lives.
3. _____ like Jesus does.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____

B. _____ From What Happened. (Grasping, or realization)

1. _____ what went wrong.
 - a. Take _____ for what you did or did not do, but do not _____ yourself up about it.
 - b. Failure can be a great _____, if you let it.
2. You get good _____ from experience, and you get experience from _____ judgment.

C. Make Something Else _____. (Pressing on the right way)

1. Use what you discovered from your analysis and _____ again.
 - a. What does the _____ say about the topic?
 - b. Look at the _____ of other Godly individuals.
2. Exercise the faith and _____ to continue following God's plan. Ephesians 3:20
 - a. Don't let self-_____ prevent you from accomplishing what God wants you to do.
 - b. Don't let _____ paralyze you into non-action.
 - c. Don't be ashamed of cleaning up your _____.
 - d. Be _____ and courageous. (Joshua 1:7)