

Faithful Stewardship

Luke 12:35-48

February 12, 2023

The second coming of Christ was _____ by Jesus and the apostles, and even though it has been over two thousand years since the resurrection of Christ, the _____ of His return remains imminent. _____ to Christ and the principles of living He taught is required of _____ person, whether or not he is a believer. Each person will be held _____ for his actions.

A. _____

1. The Lord _____ coming
 - a. It is a _____. (John 14:3; Acts 1:11)
 - b. It is certain, even though _____ by many. (2 Peter 3)
2. He will come like a _____.
 - a. _____ (Matthew 24:27)
 - b. _____
3. We should be _____ for Him.
 - a. Watching (vs. 37) = _____ (state of mind)
 - b. Because He is _____ to us

B. _____

1. Be _____
 - a. “_____ girl about us” (vs. 35)
 - b. _____ (Ephesians 6:14)

2. Be _____
 - a. Keep your _____ burning.
 - b. Maintain a _____ testimony.
3. Open _____
 - a. _____
 - b. _____ (receiving and giving)

C. Rewards

1. Cause and _____ relationships
 - a. The reward for _____ work is more work, but on a larger scale and more _____.
 - b. Sweet _____ with the Savior
 - c. The result of unfaithfulness is _____ and punishment.
2. There are _____ of punishment in hell like there are _____ in heaven.
 - a. A person is held _____ accountable for his own life.
 - b. The torment of hell will not be _____ felt. The light a person possesses helps determine how _____ he is. Some will be found more _____ than others, but no lost person can claim innocency in the day of judgment.