

Get All You Can, and Can All You Get

Luke 12:13-34

February 5, 2023

Everyone wants to be a _____, and no one sets out to be a _____. Who determines the _____ of success, and how is it measured? This parable of the rich fool deals with _____, an age-old problem. At the judgment seat, I wonder if God might ask each of us: Did you _____ all you could? _____ did you make it? For what _____ did you make it?

A. The Circumstance

1. A large _____ had gathered.
2. Jesus had been teaching about:
 - a. Handling _____
 - b. Confronting _____
 - c. Not _____ the Holy Spirit
3. The man interrupted Jesus, almost _____.
 - a. He had been listening, but had not been _____.
 - b. He was fretting and fuming about a _____ wrong, and wanted Jesus to be the arbitrator.

B. The Rich Man

1. His _____ was very productive.
 - a. We are _____ told how he got it.
 - b. By _____ and/or a business acquisition
 - c. A test of a person's character may be _____ in his prosperity than in his _____.

2. There was nothing _____ with his wealth.
 - a. He worked _____.
 - b. He was _____.
3. He was _____ about his goal.
 - a. His dilemma – he had _____ than he could handle.
- b. He was settled in _____.
 - (1). In his _____
 - (2). In his _____-congratulation
- c. He only prepared for the _____, not the eternal.
- d. He did not recognize that _____ he had was from God.

C. But God Said

1. Thou _____
 - a. _____ is certain.
 - b. He had _____ control of real life.
 - c. Life is _____ about temporal things
 - d. His life was really _____ in satisfaction and fulfillment.
2. His counsel
 - a. Lay up for yourselves treasures in _____.
 - b. Your treasure _____ where your heart is. (vs. 34)